DEATH OF HENRY T. ALTER, PROMINENT YOUNG CINCINNATI.

A telegram was received by George T. Barbour on Friday announcing the death of his cousin, Henry T. Alter, of Cincinnati. Mr. Alter has frequently visited here and is known to a great many Maysville people.

He is the son of Hon. Franklin Alter, a prominent capitalist and manufacturer of Cincinnati.

MISS ALSTON DRAKE OF RICHMOND WEDDED TO J. McCOSH CECIL.

The following is a copy of invitations received by Maysville friends. The name James (to Mr. Cecil) is in honor of two Maysville friends. He was born in Selma, Ala. Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D., father of Mr. James McCosh Cecil, was the first pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, this place, after the dedication in 1885. He and his beloved wife endeavored themselves to the entire congregation and community.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hodges Drake request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter

Alston to Mr. James McCosh Cecil Monday evening April the thirteenth nineteen hundred and fourteen at six-thirty o'clock Park Place Methodist Church Richmond, Virginia.
Reception immediately after the ceremony, 1206 Floyd avenue.

The young couple have the heartiest congratulations and fondest kind wishes of many friends.

"SWEET SIXTEEN"

comes but once in her lifetime. Let the portrait preserve the record of that happy age. A visit to the photographer keeps fresh for all time, the budding charms of sixteen or the bloom of twenty. Think what those pictures will mean to you and to her, in the after years.
Modern equipment and the natural, homelike surroundings of the up-to-date studio, insure faithful and artistic portraiture.

Go-To-Church Day.

Jesus refers to three kinds of men who began to make excuses. They are here in Mason County. Yes, sir, there's the man who is so busy he has no time for the church. He says he would like to get to church and pray, but he can't. He really hasn't the time. Then, there's the man who is so deceived by the things of this world that he can't see anything attractive in religion. Then there is the third class who will tell a falsehood and so try to deceive themselves and others rather than do the thing which conscience tells them they ought to do. Now men of Maysville and Mason County, FOR ONCE at least lay your plans so that you can get to church. The GO-TO-CHURCH DAY is May 3rd. Everybody will go to church that day, even father.

Christian Church.
Bible School service begins at 9:15 and closes at 10:35. Every scholar is urged to attend. People are wondering what the attendance will be. Even the Flamingburg wonders what we will do. So all together now, men, women and children; members, friends and strangers—all present and the attendance will be large.

Morning church service at 10:45. The pastor will preach. The choir will give special music. The service will please you.
In the evening C. P. Evans of Lexington will speak. He has a reputation that insures us a good service. Special music.
In the afternoon, at 2:30, Mr. C. P. Evans will conduct a Union Christian Endeavor conference.
At 6 p. m. Miss Alta Adam will lead the C. E. meeting. All welcome.
A. F. STAHL, Minister.

First Baptist Church.

Two hundred is the Sunday School mark for next Sunday; with 149 last week and over sixty more promised, we are almost certain to reach the goal. A special program is arranged for and the entire public is invited, especially those who do not attend Sunday School. "All Things Are Yours" will be the special message to the new converts at 10:45 a. m. There were twenty-one souls to profess Christ during the ordinance which our pastor held at Aberdeen; most of these will receive the ordinance of baptism at 11:30 Sunday morning. The services will be over by 12 p. m.
"The Revival We Need in Maysville" will be the evening sermon; 7:30 p. m. is the new hour to begin. Several new voices are in the choir and good music is assured. Our special revival services will begin Sunday April 19th. B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p. m. Miss Mary Parker will lead. "The Christian Race" for the subject. Welcome is everyone to these services, especially if you have not a church home in Maysville.

H. B. WILHOYTE, Pastor.
Third Street M. E. Church.
Public worship tomorrow at 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The pastor will preach at both services. Special music. Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. I. M. Lane superintendent. Those who do not go to Sunday School elsewhere will be warmly welcomed here. You will enjoy our Sunday School. A big school; fine music; good teachers; and a splendid enthusiasm throughout the Sunday School period.
Epworth League devotional service at 6:30 led by Miss Etta Porter. The League's membership roll will be called and all are invited to respond with a Bible verse. Regular monthly offering will be taken.
The public most cordially invited to all of these services.
J. M. LITERAL, Pastor.

Christ's Table Talks.
Jesus talked to people not merely at them. If He were invited to dine with any of us in Maysville, He would not hesitate to tell some things which most people would say was not within the province of an invited guest. Society would say, "Wan't he rude. Why, just to think he was invited here and then to have him find fault with the actions of both the guests and the host." The etiquette of polite society may be all right but we are not to be so prudish that we will not ignore it now and then for the good of both the host or hostess and the invited guests. To acquiesce in that which the host or hostess does which you know to be wrong, makes you equally guilty of the wrong.
There are people here in Maysville who would not ask their friends to accept Christ as their Savior because they are afraid they will offend the delicate sensibilities of their refined spirit.
Thank goodness! there are some Maysville people who can add to their refinement a Christ-like spirit that enables them to be in the full sense Christians and whose spiritual and moral natures make it easy for them to speak out for Jesus without a blush or a hesitation.

JOE VANCE AT PRACTICE.
In comment on the practice of the Columbus team, Sunday's Ohio State Journal says: "Joe Vance took a short turn at pitching to batters yesterday afternoon. He did not go far with his work, the first of the sort he attempted. His arm is weak, but its owner, thinks that it will gather strength right along."

Our Colored Citizens.

The Art Department of the Civic Improvement Club will meet this afternoon with Miss Florence Morton.
REITHA MORTON, Secretary.

There will be an entertainment given tonight in the basement of the Bethel Baptist Church by Mrs. Sarah Wheeler for the benefit of the church. Come and bring your friends.
The many friends of Mary E. Fuller, the foster daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Jackson, will be delighted to know she has returned from Chicago to spend the summer in Maysville.
The Annual Thanksgiving sermon of Barn's Chapter No. 21 Order of Eastern Star, will be preached Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at Bethel Baptist Church, by Rev. R. Jackson.
All friends are requested to attend and contribute.
MRS. M. J. TAYLOR, W. M.
MRS. H. L. ANDERSON, Sec.

Bethel Baptist Church.
Sunday School at 9:30 a. m.
Preaching morning and evening at the usual hours by the pastor. "Lords' Supper" at the evening service at which time all the members are invited to be present.
All are welcome.
R. JACKSON, Pastor.

ELECTRIC SIGNS!

The distinguishing air of quality which a first-class Electric Sign gives to a store is the element which gives a sign its greatest value as an advertising medium and investment. The impression it makes is good. It blazes forth to the public that there is business enterprise, merchandise and methods up-to-date. It affects the entire atmosphere of the business district. The stranger says, "It is a live town," and publishes it abroad.
